AMEND Senate Bill No. 1342*

House Bill No. 1365

by adding the following language as a new subsection in SECTION 1:

() If any branch of state government enters into a contract to outsource or privatize the provision of services with regard to any state building or facility, including, but not limited to, janitorial, maintenance, or security services, then any employees providing such services at the time of contract shall be retained in their present position and shall not experience any reduction in benefits or salary as a result of the branch entering into such contract.
